Enrique Ciurlizza is a driven M&A Dealmaker with extensive financial modeling experience and a deep knowledge of the capital markets. He has closed over $1.5BN in transactions, valued private companies ranging from $50-500MM in EV, and advised private companies in strategy and corporate finance. He also has valuable experience pitching alternative investments and raising capital from ultra-high net worth individuals and family offices.

Enrique worked in the Institutional Clients Group at Citibank after completing a rotational program based out of NYC and being promoted to Assistant Vice President. He acted as an Associate Banker in a banking team managing 40 clients with over $250MM in AUM. Before that, Enrique completed internships at Goldcorp and Trisura.

Enrique's industry exposure has been broad and includes tech, commercial real estate, consumer discretionary, healthcare, metals & mining and insurance.

Today, Enrique has the privilege of working with exceptional entrepreneurs to grow their businesses and maximize value through strategic exits. He also acts as a fractional CFO to growing companies in a variety of industries. Finally, Enrique is a minority shareholder in and advisor to Shippie Technologies, a fast-growing DSP software startup in the Greater Toronto Area.

Enrique is a CFA Charterholder and holds a BCom (Honours) from the University of British Columbia Sauder School of Business. He derives immense satisfaction from mentoring students through the UBC Executive Mentorship Program.
